

DUI Defenses that work

Were you arrested for DUI? Do you think it is hopeless? Maybe Not! There are ways to win. Did the officer have a legal reason to stop you? Were the field sobriety tests done according to Federal guidelines? Was the chemical test analyzed properly? Do you have a medical condition that would mimic impairment or invalidate the blood alcohol reading? Attorneys affiliated with the National College for DUI Defense have led the charge in challenging the computer programs used to run breath testing instruments, and have exposed deceit and fraudulent record keeping at a major forensic laboratory, resulting in the overturning of thousands of DUI cases. Do you want an attorney who knows how to investigate and develop these kinds of defenses? To find one in your area, Click here.
